

Description of the public workshops offered

 Digital citizenship
ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
Cyberbullying	Interactive virtual class	Cyberbullying is a type of online aggression that can affect anyone. This workshop will allow participants to understand the phenomenon and its consequences, as well as to know the laws and remedies.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Detecting different types of online harassment.• Understanding how to react to cyberbullying.• Knowing your rights and your remedies.• Discovering relevant and useful resources.
Does my online content belong to me?	Interactive virtual class	The general terms of use define the responsibility of the user and the platform. This workshop aims to explore how social network treats shared content by their users by using Facebook as an example.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understanding what the purpose of general terms of use is.• Understanding the mechanisms of personal data collection.• Being able to identify when our contents do not belong to us anymore.
Mastering artificial intelligence	Webinar	For several years, we have been hearing about the revolution of artificial intelligence. What is it really? What are the impacts on our lives and our role as citizens in relation to AI?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Discovering the origins of that technology's revolution.• Understanding how artificial intelligence works by using concrete examples.• Discovering its implications and its ethical issues within our daily life.• Knowing our role as citizens in that technology's development.

Digital citizenship

ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
Heading towards an eco-conscious use of digital technology.	Webinar	This workshop will help you understand the environmental issues of digital technology, from purchasing a device to surfing the Web. Did you know that a simple mouse click emits greenhouse gases? Do you know how data centres work? This workshop will give you new tools that will help you reduce your carbon footprint and understand how Internet really works!	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understanding the digital sector's environmental impact.• Situating Internet: discovering servers and data centres.• Exploring the good practices when it comes to the management of computing devices and using the Internet.• Intervening on those issues on an individual or collective basis.

Online security

ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
To click or not to click? Recognizing and protecting oneself from phishing	Webinar	Phishing is a type of online fraud that can take different forms, which are sometimes difficult to identify. This workshop will allow participants to understand how to identify fraudulent emails and websites infringements.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understanding the objectives of phishing.• Knowing the legal remedies.• Identifying fraudulent emails.
Tips and tricks	Webinar	Online security is all over the digital experience. Discover ready to use tips and tricks to protect yourself better and to develop good reflexes as users.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understanding what online security is and the issues that result from it.• Acquiring basic concepts to develop healthy online habits.• Discovering tools to protect oneself better.

Social networks

ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
Understanding algorithms and their impacts	Webinar	Algorithms have an influence on what we see on social networks. This workshop will allow participants to understand how algorithms work and to identify their impacts on the content we see.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Discovering what an algorithm is.• Understanding why it is used.• Understanding how the algorithm has an effect on the user and vice versa.
Heading towards a responsible use	Interactive virtual class	Social networks are more and more an integral part of our lives. This workshop aims to explore each person's responsibility when using social networks in a professional and personal context.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Reflecting on the challenges of using social networks.• Understanding what an online ethical attitude is.• Considering possible solutions to take responsibility.
How to find your way around and secure your Facebook account.	Interactive virtual class	How to make sure that the way you use Facebook is responsible and secure. This workshop will teach you how to control better who sees the information that you share on Facebook as well as what appears on your news feed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Browsing your Facebook account interface better.• Using your Facebook account in a responsible and secure manner.• Finding your way around and securing the basic settings of your Facebook account.• Recognizing the different public and private spaces to manage the audience of your publications better.• How to customize your news feed.
The social Web: its codes and its trends	Webinar	It might seem difficult to find one's way in the social Web's universe. How to understand the language and the trends of different social networks. This workshop will allow you to discover the Instagram, Twitter, Facebook and YouTube platforms as well as to familiarize you with its functions and its vocabulary.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understanding the differences between social platforms such as Instagram, Twitter, Facebook and YouTube.• Understanding the phenomenon of viral content and its trends on the Web.• Mastering network environment to use it in an appropriate manner.

Cloud computing data

ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
Introduction to the concept of cloud computing	Webinar	Cloud computing is a digital infrastructure as important as the Internet to date. You use it without even knowing it. Come and discover what this mysterious term hides and how to use it in a practical perspective.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding the concept of cloud computing. • Discovering cloud computing services and its providers. • Considering the service that is most convenient for you as a user.

Tablet

ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
iPad tablet — Making better use of the tablet	Interactive virtual class	Level 1 Tablets have a wide variety of settings and it can be difficult to get around easily. This workshop will allow participants to browse the tablet's settings. They will learn how to find their way on the menu, find information and control the most commonly used settings.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identifying the most commonly used settings. • Browsing the settings. • Understanding the drop-down menu's structure. • Using the search bar. • Understanding how to use the control centre.
iPad tablet — The Web and its resources	Interactive virtual class	Level 2 Due to a display space reduced by the size of a tablet's screen, Web display had to adapt by creating new option icons to optimize browsing. This workshop will allow participants to learn how to use Safari's Web browser functions better, which are specific to the tablet.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding Web browsers. • Identifying and using the browser's functions (Safari for the iPad). • Understanding the basic use of a search engine. • Knowing how to manage tabs. • Learning the architecture of a website on the tablet. • Learning how to use the playlists, bookmarks and history functions better.

Tablet

ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
iPad tablet— Downloading and application management	Interactive virtual class	Level 3 The digital tablet offers a wide range of utilities to either the general public or professionals. They can be downloaded from an online store. This workshop will allow users to understand and manage applications on a tablet. They will learn to find and choose applications on the Apple Store (iPad), as well as tips and tricks for troubleshooting these applications.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Browsing on iTunes (iPad).• Understanding how to search an application.• Knowing how to react to an advertisement in the applications.• Managing purchases within the applications.
Android tablet—Making better use of the tablet	Interactive virtual class	Level 1 Tablets have a wide variety of settings and it can be difficult to get around easily. This workshop will allow participants to browse the tablet's settings. They will learn how to find their way on the menu, find information and control the most commonly used settings.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identifying the most commonly used settings.• Browsing the settings.• Understanding the drop-down menu's structure.• Using the search bar.• Understanding how to use the control centre.

Tablet

ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
Android tablet — The Web and its resources	Interactive virtual class	Level 2 Due to a display space reduced by the size of a tablet's screen, Web display had to adapt by creating new option icons to optimize browsing. This workshop will allow participants to learn how to use Google Chrome's Web browser functions better, which are specific to the tablet.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understanding Web browsers.• Identifying and using the browser's functions (Google Chrome for Android tablets).• Understanding the basic use of a search engine.• Knowing how to manage tabs.• Learning the architecture of a website on the tablet.• Learning how to use playlists, bookmarks and history functions better
Android tablet— Downloading and application management	Interactive virtual class	Level 3 The digital tablet offers a wide range of utilities to either the general public or professionals. They can be downloaded from an online store. This workshop will allow users to understand and manage applications on a tablet. They will learn to find and chose applications on the Play Store (Android), as well as tips and tricks for troubleshooting these applications.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Browsing on the Play Store(Android).• Understanding how to search an application.• Knowing how to react to an advertisement in these applications.• Managing purchases within these applications.

Fake news

Activity offered by a journalist who is a member of the Fédération professionnelle des journalistes du Québec (Quebec Federation of Professional Journalists) or the Association des journalistes indépendants du Québec (Quebec Association of Independent Journalists).

It is preferable to suggest workshop A before suggesting workshop B.

ACTIVITY	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	LEARNING OUTCOME
Introduction to fake news (Workshop A)	Webinar	Fake news is a made-up story that takes the appearance of real news in order to mislead people. What are the different faces of fake news and disinformation? How can we track them down? This webinar offers you useful tips to verify if the information is based on trusted sources or not before believing it or sharing it.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Acquiring basic reflexes before sharing information. • Understanding why these reflexes make a difference. • Reflecting on one's capacity to distinguish a fact from an opinion.
Virality and impacts of fake news (Workshop B)	Webinar	Why do fake news become viral on the Web? What role do our emotions play in their propagation? What are the impacts of disinformation? Thanks to this webinar, you will better understand the fake news phenomenon and you will learn tips used by journalists to verify the information.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding the impacts of disinformation. • Understanding the role that we all play in the fight against disinformation. • Acquiring information verification methods.

Avec un financement du

